Salem – The Salem County Board of Elections, at its Reorganization meeting Wednesday, seated members Michael H. Facemyer (R) of Alloway and John D. Burke (D) of Pilesgrove, who were reappointed to new two-year terms earlier this week by direct appointment of Governor Christie.

Also at the Reorganization meeting, members voted David Crescenzi (D) to serve a one-year term as Chair and Florence Butler (R) to serve a one-year term as Secretary.

Board of Election members are gubernatorial appointments who serve staggered two-year terms. The four-member board equally represents the Democrat and Republican organizations.

The Board also formally reappointed staff to the following positions:

Shirlee Manahan (R) – Registrar Renee Buehler (D) – Registrar Peggie Kramme (R) – Deputy Registrar Jeanmaire Waddington (D) – Deputy Registrar

In other business, the Board set its meeting dates for 2014:

May 21, 2014 June 25, 2014 September 17, 2014 October 15, 2014

All meetings take place 9:00 a.m. at the Salem County Fifth Street Conference Room, 110 5th Street, Salem, NJ 08079.
